ANTI-SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

1. PREAMBLE

East West Institute of Technology, Bengaluru (herein after referred to as EWIT) is committed to creating and maintaining a community in which students, faculty and non-teaching staff can work together in an environment free of violence, harassment, exploitation, intimidation and stress. This includes all forms of gender violence, sexual harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex/gender or amongst the same sex members. Every member of the EWIT should be aware that EWIT is committed to the right to freedom of expression and association. It strongly support gender equality and opposes any form of gender discrimination and violence.

2. Scope of reference for East West Institute of Technology

In formulating a policy for preventing and redressing sexual harassment, the fact that EWIT consists of academic departments and administrative offices in the EWIT campus and research centers, health centers, hostels have been considered. The EWIT has a constituency of almost students and employees. A majority of these people commute to their “work place” (i.e. place of work/study) from various parts of the city. The interpretation of the term, “work place,” for the purpose of the policy for EWIT, will extend to all public spheres that remain in contact with members of the EWIT community. Such public spaces include not just the physical premises under the supervision of the EWIT system, but even areas in and outside Bengaluru, where the EWIT members reside or travel to as part of their work as members of the EWIT. The jurisdiction will include field trips, sports tournaments, conferences, college festivals and all other activities undertaken by any person as a member of EWIT.

3. Guiding principles for definition of sexual harassment & redressal mechanism:

This policy defines sexual harassment and the mechanisms of redressal by looking at the specific structures, needs and imperatives in the EWIT. It is guided by the definition of sexual harassment given by the Supreme Court in 1997 in Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan and 'UGC (Prevention, Prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment of women employees and students in higher educational institutions) Regulations 2015 (vide MHRD- UGC- Notification dated 02.05.2016)'.

4. Objectives of the policy:

Following are the objectives of the Policy

- (a) To fulfill the directive of the Supreme Court & respective UGC guidelines enjoining all employers to develop and implement a policy against sexual harassment at the work place.
- (b) To evolve a permanent mechanism for the prevention and redressal of sexual harassment cases and other acts of gender based violence at the EWIT.
- (c) To ensure the implementation of the policy in letter and spirit through proper reporting of the complaints and their follow-up procedures.
- (d) To uphold the commitment of the EWIT to provide an environment free of gender-based discrimination.
- (e) To create a secure physical and social environment which will deter acts of sexual harassment?
- (f) To promote a social and psychological environment, this will raise awareness about sexual harassment in its various forms.
- (g) To generate public opinion against sexual harassment and all forms of gender-based violence.
- (h) To make recommendations to the EWIT and the HoD's - EWIT for changes/elaborations in the Rules, Standing orders and By-Laws etc, to make them gender just and to lay down procedures for the prohibition, resolution, settlement and prosecution of acts of sexual harassment by and of women employees and students.
- (i) To deal with cases of sexual harassment, in a time bound manner, aiming at ensuring support services to the victimized and termination of the harassment;
- (j) To recommend appropriate punitive action against the guilty party to the Principal.

5. Definition of sexual harassment

The following constitutes sexual harassment:

- (d) The quorum for the meetings will be presence of 30% members.
- (e) In emergency situations, the meetings may be called at a shorter notice and held with fewer Members, after an explanation for doing so. In the absence of the Convener, the members present shall appoint a female member to act as the Presiding Officer for the said meeting.

- (f) In the absence of the Member-Secretary, another member may be appointed by the members present to take the meetings.

15. Power and duties

Role of Heads of the Units is to bring in preventive steps through seminars, awareness programmes, workshops etc., as per the approval of The Principal - EWIT. On the other hand role of ICC is not only to undertake preventive measures or steps but also to handle complaints as per the respective UGC guidelines. In other terms ICC will be considered as a prime body to handle complaints under this policy.

(a) Preventive Steps

- i. To create and ensure a safe environment that is free of sexual harassment.
- ii. To create an atmosphere promoting equality and gender justice.
- iii. To publicize the, especially through prospectuses, notice boards etc.
- iv. To publicize in English and in Kannada the names and phone EWIT members of the committee (ICC).
- v. To plan and carry out programmes for gender sensitization.

(b) Remedial Steps

- i. The mechanism for registering complaints should be safe, accessible and sensitive.
- ii. To take cognizance of complaints about sexual harassment, conduct enquiries, provide assistance and redressal to the victims, recommend penalties and take action against the harasser, if necessary.
- iii. To recommend to the concerned authorities follow-up action and monitor the same.
- iv. To advise the disciplinary authority concerned to issue warnings or take the help of the law to stop the harasser, if the complainant consents.
- v. To seek medical, police and legal intervention with the consent of the complainant.
- vi. To make arrangements for appropriate psychological, emotional and physical support (in the form of counseling, security and other assistance) to the victim if/so he so desires.

16. Procedure for registering complaints:

- (a) An Aggrieved person is required to file written complaint within 3 months in writing from the date of incident and in case of series of incidents within a period of three months from the date of last incident.

Provided that where such complaint cannot be made in writing Presiding member or any member of internal complaint committee shall render all reasonable assistance to person for making complaint.

Provided further that ICC may, for reasons to be accorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that circumstances were such which prevented the person from filing a complaint within the said period.

- (b) Friends, relatives, colleagues, co-students, psychologists or any other associate of the victim may file complaints where aggrieved person is unable to make complaint on account of physical or mental incapacity.

17. Enquiry procedures

- (a) Any complaints made to any committee member must be received and recorded by the member, who shall then inform the Presiding Officer about the complaint, who in turn shall call a meeting of the internal complaints committee.
- (b) All meetings of the Committee will be called by the Member Secretary in consultation with the Presiding Officer and a notice of at least 3 to 5 working days must be given.
- (c) ICC shall upon receipt of the complaint send one copy of the complaint to the respondent within a period of seven days of such receipt.
- (d) Upon receipt of the copy of the complaint, the respondent shall file his or reply to the complainant along with the list of documents and names and addresses of witnesses within a period of ten days.
- (e) The inquiry has to be completed within a period of 90 days from the receipt of the complaint. The inquiry report, with recommendations, if any, has to be submitted within ten days from the completion of the enquiry to the Principal. Copy of the findings or recommendations shall be served on both parties to the complainant.

- (f) The Principal shall act on recommendations of the committee with in a period of 30 days from the receipt of the inquiry report unless an appeal against the findings is filed within that time by either party.
- (g) An appeal against the findings or recommendations of the ICC may be filed by either party before the Authority through the Principal- EWIT within a period of 30 days from the date of recommendations.
- (h) If the Principal decides not to act as per the recommendations of the ICC, then he shall record written reasons for the same to be conveyed to ICC and both the parties to the proceeding. If on the other hand it is decided to act as per the recommendations of ICC, then a show cause notice answerable within ten days shall be served on the party, against whom action is decided to be taken. The Principal shall proceed only after considering the reply or hearing the aggrieved person.
- (i) The aggrieved party may seek conciliation in order to settle the matter. No monetary settlement should be made as a basis of conciliation. The Principal shall facilitate a conciliation process through ICC as the case may be, once it is sought. The resolution of the conflict to the full satisfaction of the aggrieved party where ever possible, is preferred to purely punitive intervention.
- (j) The identities of the aggrieved party or victim or the offender shall not be made public or kept in the public domain especially during the process of enquiry.
- (k) The Committee is bound to maintain confidentiality during the time of the enquiry (in order not to prejudice the proceedings).

NOTE:

- i. A complainant has the right to go public if she so desires. Going public before giving in the complaint to the committee by the complainant should not prejudice the committee members. Once a complaint has been given to the committee, the complainant should preferably not go public till the enquiry is completed unless required.
- ii. Filing of a grievance/complaint shall not adversely affect the complainant's status/job, salary/promotion, grades etc.
- iii. The ICC should make efforts to ensure that the complainants and the witnesses are not further victimized or discriminated against while it is dealing with the complaint. The committee shall make recommendations to The Principal - EWIT to take action against anyone who intimidates the complainant or members of the committee, during or after the enquiry.

- iv. Any committee member charged with sexual harassment in a written complaint must step down as member during the enquiry into that complaint.
- v. The ICC should form a small crisis intervention group comprising a group of committee members who should be readily accessible. The telephone numbers of EWIT members should be widely publicized.
- vi. The committee should have names and easy access to groups and/or individuals who can assist by providing legal, medical and/or psychological help.
- vii. During the pendency of an enquiry, on a written request made by the complainant , the ICC may recommend to the Principal - EWIT to
  - a) Transfer the complainant to any other workplace or
  - b) Grant leave to the complainant up to a period of three months or
  - c) Grant such other relief to the complainant as may be prescribed.

The leave granted to the complainant under this circumstance shall be in addition to the leave she would be otherwise entitled.

18 Interim redressal

- (a) Transfer the complainant or the respondent to another section or department to minimize the risks involved in contact or interaction, if such recommendation is made by the ICC.
- (b) Grant leave to the aggrieved with full protection of status and benefits for a period up to 3 months.
- (c) Restrain the respondent from reporting on or evaluating the work or performance or tests or examination of the complaint.
- (d) Ensure that offenders are warned to keep distance from aggrieved, and where ever necessary if there is a definite threat, restrain their entry into the campus.

- (e) Take strict measures to provide a conducive environment of safety and protection to the complainant against retaliation and victimization as a consequence of making a complainant of sexual harassment.

19. Punishment

- (a) Anyone found guilty of sexual harassment shall be punished in accordance with the service rules of EWIT, if the offender is an employee.
- (b) Where the respondent is a student, depending upon the severity of the offence, EWIT may,
  - i. withhold privileges of the student such as access to the library, auditorium halls of residence, transportation, scholarships, allowances and identity card,
  - ii. suspend or restrict entry into the campus for a specific period
  - iii. expel and strike off name from the rolls of the institution, including denial of re-admission, if the offence so warrants
  - iv. award reformatory punishments like mandatory counseling and, or, performance of community services
- (c) The aggrieved person is entitled to payment of compensation. The EWIT shall issue direction for the payment of compensation as recommended by the ICC and as accepted by the Authority which shall be recovered from the offender. The compensation payable shall be determined on the basis of
  - i. Mental trauma, pain, suffering and distress caused to the aggrieved person.
  - ii. The loss of career opportunity due to the incident of sexual harassment.
  - iii. The medical expenses incurred by the victim for physical and psychiatric treatment
  - iv. The income and status of the alleged perpetrator and victim; and Feasibility of such payment in lump sum or in installments.
- (d) In the case of third party harassment/outsider harassment, the EWIT shall initiate action by making a complaint with the appropriate authority.

- (e) Enhancement of disciplinary action, by the committee, could depend on factors such as the nature and extent of injury caused to the complainant, the impact of the violation on the institutions as a whole, the position of the harasser in the power hierarchy, repetition of offence etc.
- (f) Non-adversarial modes of redressal and resolution could also be considered in appropriate cases. Examples of this may be verbal warning, verbal apology, promise of good behavior etc.

20. Actions against frivolous complaints

- (a) To ensure that the provisions for the protection of employees and students from sexual harassment do not get misused, provisions against false or malicious complaints have to be made and publicized within the institute and EWIT.
- (b) If the ICC concludes that the allegations made were false malicious or the complainant was made knowing it to be untrue or forged or misleading information has been provided during the inquiry, the complainant shall be liable to be punished..
- (c) However the mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof will not attract attention against the complainant. Malicious intent on the part of the complainant shall not be established without an inquiry in accordance with the procedures prescribed, conducted before any action is recommended.

21. Amendments to the policy

On the basis of their experience of the working of the policy, ICC or Head of the institute will have the power to make recommendations to the Authority - EWIT and the Principal-EWIT for bringing changes in the policy. The Authority after adequate consultation shall make recommendations to the Board of Management about changes in the policy, as and when required in keeping with the preamble and objectives of the policy.
